Happy Holidays!

That time of year is upon us again and I love it. It means crisp, cold mornings with fresh snow atop Pikes Peak and more time with family and friends.

As this year winds down I want to thank each member for supporting us. We would not be as amazing as we are without all of you.

We gathered to eat, celebrate, and wrap gifts for our sponsored family. It was a laid back good time full of laughs and great food.

RMG is ready to host the first board meeting of the year at our new location: 5085 List Dr., Suite 200, Colorado Springs, CO 80919. Any member can attend and we will welcome you with open arms. Please RSVP to me so I can get the conference set up.

Enjoy the beautiful views, the time together, and the yummy food this time of year has to offer.

Wishing you a joyous holiday season,
Kristen Ibarra, CDT

Timberline Christmas Lights Guide 2023

The holiday season is here again, and there is no better way to celebrate than to take a Christmas lights tour around Colorado Springs! Timberline has updated their guide of must-see areas, businesses and homes that have fantastic Christmas lights. They've also highlighted some hot cocoa & coffee stops along the way so you can stay cozy while you browse, and have included a playlist of all the best Christmas music to enjoy while you drive.

The Invitation

Oriah Mountain Dreamer is a Native American Elder, spiritual counselor and story teller, among other things. This poem offers an invitation to every single one of us to "show up" in the universe. She reminds us that we do not serve the universe by being small.

Rather, we serve the universe by making the most out of our lives.

It doesn't interest me what you do for a living I want to know what you ache for,
and if you dare to dream of meeting your heart's longing.

It doesn't interest me how old you are.

I want to know if you will risk looking like a fool for love, for your dreams, for the adventure of being alive.

It doesn't interest me what planets are squaring your moon.

I want to know if you have touched the center of your own sorrow, if you have been opened by life's betrayals or have been shriveled and closed from fear of further pain! I want to know if you can sit with pain, mine or your own, if you can dance with wildness and let the ecstasy fill you to the tips of your fingers and toes without cautioning us to be careful, be realistic, or to remember the limitations of being human.

It doesn't interest me if the story you're telling me is true.

I want to know if you can disappoint another to be true to yourself.

I want to know if you can be faithful and therefore trustworthy.

I want to know if you can see beauty even when it's not pretty every day, and if you can source your life from GOD's presence.

I want to know if you can live with failure, yours and mine, and still stand on the edge of the lake and shout to the silver of the moon, "Yes!"

It doesn't interest me to know where you live or how much money you have.

I want to know if you can get up after a night of grief and despair, weary and bruised to the bone, and do what needs to be done.

It doesn't interest me where or what or with whom you have studied.

I want to know what sustains you from the inside when all else falls away.

I want to know if you can be alone with yourself, and if you truly like the company you keep in the empty moments.....

Cherokee Blessing

May the warm winds of heaven blow softly upon your house.

May the great spirit bless all who enter.

May your moccasins make happy tracks in many snows And may the rainbow always touch your shoulder.

Community Outreach

NAWIC Pikes Peak 356 Quarterly Community Outreach
(October - December 2023)

Our chapter participated in the Patty Jewett Angel Tree to “adopt” a family of 4 foster kids whose parent(s) are working with Alternative Beliefs and Choices Counseling for the Christmas holiday. Alternative Counseling is a private rehab center specializing in the treatment of alcoholism, drug addiction, dual diagnosis, opioid addiction, and substance abuse. The children that we shopped for this season consisted of three girls, ages 5, 7 and 10, and one boy, age 8. Thanks to our fantastic members and a generous donation from Double M Concrete we were able to fulfill all the needs and wishes of all four children!

On December 7, our chapter members got together at our NAWIC Crafty Christmas party, held at Timberline Landscaping, to wrap all the gifts. It was so fun to see all the different and beautifully wrapped presents. We dropped them off at Patty Jewett the next day so that they would be ready to be picked up on December 17th from Santa and Mrs. Claus.

Pikes Peak Chapter #356 Safety News

December 2023

Tips for Dealing with Stress During the Holidays

While the holiday season can be filled with joy and wonderful moments with family and friends, for many it often also brings unwanted guests — stress and anxiety. A long list of to-dos and demands on our time, finances and expectations can all add up. The good news? With some practical tips, you can help minimize the holiday stress and find more time for enjoyment. Taking some simple, conscious steps can help minimize or even ward off situational holiday stress and depression.

1. Acknowledge your feelings. The holidays can trigger sadness if you've recently lost or are missing loved ones. It's normal to feel this sadness and grief. Allow yourself to feel. It's ok to cry. And find someone you can share your feelings with. Chances are, you're not alone.
2. Reach out. Seeking out community, religious or other social events can help you connect with others. Many may also have websites, online support groups, social media sites or virtual events. Helping others is often the best way to help ourselves. Consider volunteering your time or doing something to help others. It could be as simple as dropping off a meal or holiday treats to someone who could use it.
3. Be realistic. It's not realistic to feel "holiday joy" all the time. In fact, as families grow and change it's natural to think of and long for how things were. Embrace the change by holding onto favorite traditions while being open to creating new ones. For example, if your adult children or other relatives can't come to your home, find new ways to celebrate together such as starting a group text exchange or scheduling a group video call/celebration.
4. Set aside differences. Focus on the positives of any family members with whom you may disagree. Don't bring up "hot topics" and set aside grievances for this time. Also try to be understanding if others get upset or distressed. Chances are they're feeling the effects of holiday stress as well.
5. Create a budget. Give yourself the gift of having a budget. Before you do your gift and food shopping, decide how much money you can realistically afford to spend. This can help make shopping fun and feel less out-of-control. Here are a few ways to minimize gifting stress:
  - o Donate to a charity in someone's name.
  - o Give homemade gifts.
  - o Start a family gift exchange by drawing names.
6. Plan ahead. Set aside specific days for shopping, baking, connecting with friends and other holiday activities. This can provide things to look forward to, rather than having events feel like obligations.
7. Saying "no" is ok. Saying "yes" when you should say "no" can leave you feeling resentful and overwhelmed. Friends and colleagues will understand if you can't participate in every project or activity. And you don't have to explain or make up excuses. You can simply say, "sorry, that doesn't work for me that day."
8. Keep up healthy habits. The holidays are often about indulgences. Enjoy the treat but balance it with healthy habits that are good for both your body and mind. Here are a few suggestions:
  - o Have a healthy snack before holiday celebrations.
  - o Eat healthy meals.
  - o Get plenty of sleep.
  - o Include regular physical activity in your daily routine.
  - o Try deep-breathing exercises, meditation, or yoga.
  - o Avoid excessive use of alcohol or tobacco.
  - o Be aware of how social media is affecting you. Adjust the time you spend reading news or being online as needed.
9. Give yourself a break. Even those who thrive on the hustle and bustle of the season will benefit from taking a break from the activity. Spending just 15 minutes alone, without distractions, may leave you feeling refreshed. Find something that reduces stress by clearing your mind, slowing your breathing, and restoring inner calm. Here are a few ideas:
  - o Take a daily walk.
  - o Get fresh air.
  - o Drive around the neighborhood to view seasonal light displays.
  - o Play your favorite music.
  - o Listen to a new podcast.
10. Seek professional help if you need it. If you experience feelings of persistent sadness and anxiety, talk to your doctor or a mental health professional.
